BASKETBALL STINGERS HOST U.Q.T.R.

The Concordia Stingers will host the U.Q.T.R. Patriotes this Friday night (January 17) at 8:30 p.m. at the Concordia Gym on the Loyola Campus. The Stingers, 4-0 in Quebec and 14-2 overall will go into the game with a two game lead over the second place Pats, (2-2). Doug Daigneault's Stingers are currently ranked third in the nation after having captured four major tournaments so far this season.

Concordia won a fourth straight league game last Thursday at Loyola crushing Bishop's Gaiters 100-48 behind Rob Latter's 35 points. Craig Norman added 29 to complete the rout.

Concordia's winless women's team will face Laval in a preliminary game at 6:30 p.m.

HOCKEY STINGERS TO PLAY TWO

The Concordia Stingers men's hockey team will try to get back into the hunt for a Q.U.H.L. playoff spot this weekend with a pair of games against the teams that are closest in the standings to Concordia. The Stingers dropped a pair of games last weekend in Chicoutimi to fall six points behind the Inuks and the McGill Redmen. Concordia will be at home Saturday afternoon (January 18) for a 2 p.m. date with Chicoutimi and then will visit McGill on Sunday night in a game which gets underway at 7 p.m.

In the losses at Chicoutimi, Mark Kosturik had two goals as the Inuks won 6-4 Friday while Frank Iammatteo scored two as the Stingers were beaten 6-5 in overtime Sunday afternoon.
